It's A Wonderful Weekend Podcast Party with Hosts G.L. Gooding and Steve Searcy

DONNA REED's DAUGHTER

Mary Owen shares memories of her mother and more...

"My mother answered soldiers letters and she went to the Hollywood Canteen and danced with the guys there....but Frank Capra and Jimmy Stewart were different. Jimmy Stewart came back from the war as a highly decorated bomber pilot and Capra was making the Why We Fight series....the two men had been pretty close to the front lines. When they came back they had both been away from Hollywood for five years so... they came back different people and away from the business... so there was a lot of insecurity on the set because of that and I know my mother thought maybe it had to do with her because she was not very well known at the time."

CHILD ACTOR FROM IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE

Jimmy Hawkins remembers his sweet scenes with Jimmy Stewart and Donna Reed...

"Frank Capra would just talk to us. We wouldn't read the scenes or anything like that. He would just talk to us....He was very patient."

A SPECIAL FRIENDSHIP

A DIVINE PURPOSE

In the classic Christmas story, few words are ever devoted to that simple donkey who carried the poor, pregnant Mary to the Bethlehem manger...until now. That donkey was Yellum. Once small and vulnerable, the orphaned beast of burden was captured by ruthless bandits at an early age. Those evil humans made him participate in games of corruption and taught him that no one should be trusted. As the tiny donkey grows, his heart hardens. But something begins to change when he meets Sam the camel and Rags the dog who are also victims of cruel circumstances.

A cast of quirky characters who will steal the hearts of readers who love Christmas.
